To whom it may concern,

I've had the pleasure and privilege of working with Mr. Shaun O'Donoghue. His work performance went above and beyond my expectations, and he proved to be successful and effective. Organization, professionalism, and amazing attention to detail when executing any given task are just a few of his strongest skills. Shaun is clear and concise with his research as well as being mindful of his team when conveying his concepts. His experience in advertising lends to his ability to expedite the decision making process and provide structure to any project. Mr. O'Donoghue is a thoughtful, dedicated, respectful individual whose participation would be beneficial to any company.

Sincerely,

Beth
